Library News:

The Catawba County Library System and the County Information Technology Department received a 2003 Achievement Award from the National Association of Counties (NACo). This award recognized the departments for their cooperative effort with the City of Claremont in opening the Claremont Branch Library. This was one of five NACo awards received by Catawba County this year.

MAIDEN BRANCH IS SMILING!!

August 4 through 10 is National Smile Week. The Maiden Branch Library invites teens and pre-teens to perform their very own "Stand-Up Comedy Show" on Wednesday, August 20th at 3:30 pm. The teen performers will have the opportunity to tell their favorite jokes and enjoy learning other jokes from their friends. Refreshments will be served.
